GOOD SAMARITAN MEDICAL CENTER WELCOMES NEW DOCTOR TO ITS TALENTED MEDICAL STAFF

Medical Oncologist Dr. Raymond Tsao joins Good Samaritan Medical Center

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. (February 2011)- Good Samaritan Medical Center is proud to announce Dr. Raymond Tsao has joined the hospital's medical staff. Dr. Tsao is board certified in Internal Medicine as well as in Hematology and Medical Oncology.

"Good Samaritan Medical Center takes pride in its ability to recruit a talented medical team, and we are happy to welcome Dr. Tsao," says Mark Nosacka, Good Samaritan Medical Center's chief executive officer. "We are confident he will offer quality services to our patients."

Dr. Tsao completed his fellowship at the Cleveland Clinic in Cleveland, Ohio. He earned his undergraduate degree from Cornell University in Ithaca, New York in 1997 and went on to earn his Medical Degree from the University of Medicine and Dentistry of New Jersey in 2002.

Dr. Tsao is a member of several professional organizations, including the American Society of Clinical Oncology; American Society of Hematology; Southwest Oncology Group Membership; and the Southeast Cancer Control Consortium Membership.

About Good Samaritan Medical Center

Good Samaritan Medical Center, part of Tenet's Palm Beach Health Network, is a 333-bed acute care hospital located at 1309 North Flagler Drive in West Palm Beach, FL. For more than 85 years, Good Samaritan has provided sophisticated, personalized medical care to Palm Beach County and the Treasure Coast. The hospital provides comprehensive cancer services at the Helen and Harry Gray Cancer Institute in addition to a broad range of medical and surgical care. Other cancer services are provided through the Ruth C. Heede Gamma Knife Center, the Norma E. and Miles M. Zisson Comprehensive Breast Center and the Abraham and Beverly Sommer Bone Marrow/Stem Cell Transplant Unit. The hospital also assists the medical community in caring for patients with known or suspected cardio diseases through the Cardiac and Vascular Institute at Good Samaritan. Certified as a Primary Stroke Center by the Joint Commission, Good Samaritan delivers timely, advanced protocols proven to save the lives and health of stroke patients.

A wide range of outpatient services including outpatient surgery and diagnostic imaging are provided in the Victor W. Farris Medical Building located beside the hospital on the Good Samaritan Medical Center campus. 24-hour emergency service is also provided.
